

Summer Reading Fun!

Can you read books in a boat?
Can you read about building a moat?

Do you read books with a snack?
Do you read them on your back?

Can you take them on a hike?
Can you share ones you like??

Can you read them in a pool?
Can you read while keeping cool??

Can you read to make yourself smart?
Does it bring a smile to your heart?

Will you, will you on a chair?
Can you, can you

READ EVERYWHERE??

Holy Cross 5th and 6th Graders
Summer Reading Fun!

Directions:

Read! Read! Read! Read!

Yes, that is it!

Read whatever you can get your hands on!

Magazines, short stories, novels, graphic novels, fiction, non-fiction.

Build your brain and keep track of what (name of the book or article or whatever) you read and where you did your reading on the other side of this paper. Photos are optional 😊, but as soon as I figure out how, I will have picture taken of me and my favorite place to read (HINT: rhymes with cool!).

I can't wait to hear about your reading. You inspire me to read more of what you enjoy!!

Any questions, have your parents email me:

Lauren.Bates@dor.org

I look forward to hearing WHAT you are reading and WHERE you do it!! Pictures are very welcome!

I read: _____

I read: _____

I read: _____

It is a: _____

It is a: _____

It is a: _____

I read: _____

(where)

I read: _____

(where)

I read: _____

(where)

I read: _____

I read: _____

I read: _____

It is a: _____

It is a: _____

It is a: _____

I read: _____

(where)

I read: _____

(where)

I read: _____

(where)

I read: _____

I read: _____

I read: _____

It is a: _____

It is a: _____

It is a: _____

I read: _____

(where)

I read: _____

(where)

I read: _____

(where)

I read: _____

I read: _____

I read: _____

It is a: _____

It is a: _____

It is a: _____

I read: _____

(where)

I read: _____

(where)

I read: _____

(where)